March 2, 2012, marks the 107th birthday of Dr. Seuss and is NEA's Read Across America Day. The campaign, in its 15th year, is a national celebration of reading centered around the March 2nd birthday of this beloved author.

We would love to have you join us this year and be a guest reader for our "Read Across America" celebration. Each reader will be scheduled for an hour and during that time they will read to two different groups of students. Please give Mrs. Kilby a call at 801-966-1571 ex. 133 and we will set up a time on our schedule for you to share books with our students. We do hope you will be able to join us!!
