

Kerry Kennedy

Kindergarten Faculty

Ms. Kennedy graduated with a Bachelors degree from the University of Dallas, where she studied Elementary Education. She then received her Masters in Education with an emphasis on Reading Instruction through the Pacific Alliance for Catholic Education program at the University of Portland.

She is originally from Chicago, and enjoys all the mountain adventures Utah has to offer! She came to St. Francis in 2017 and loves the school's commitment to Catholic education, where every student has the opportunity to grow in virtue while pursuing Truth.
